What we do
How does GWA protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
How does GWA collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you • Enter into an investment advisory contract or complete other forms • Open an account or seek advice about your investments • Make a wire transfer or direct us to buy securities • Communicate with GWA via telephone, mail, or e-mail
Why can't I limit all sharing?	Federal Law gives you the right to limit only • sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness • affiliates from using your information to market to you • sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
What happens when I limit sharing for a partnership interest I hold jointly with someone else?	Your choices apply to all parties, unless you inform GWA otherwise in writing.
